

Dear Friend,

Communities for Restorative Justice invites you to a tea hour to hear about Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission with our senior volunteer, Rev. Dr. Barbara Smith-Moran. She recently served as a witness to the stories of aboriginal people who were forced as children to attend culturally repressing, abusive schools sponsored by churches and the government.

CONCORD POLICE DEPT
3RD FLOOR
219 WALDEN ST.
CONCORD, MA
THURS., August 19th, 2010
4-6 p.m.

Learn more about the earnest seeking of restorative justice in this difficult context. The event is free and open to the public but please RSVP to aid our planning.

*RSVP by Tues. August 17, 2010
info@C4RJ.com or 978.318.3447*

Traditional healer offering a smudging ritual (above). Barbara Smith-Moran with Commission Chair Murray Sinclair (below).

